MD Program – Undergraduate Medicine Education

Faculty Lead, Equity, Diversity, Inclusion, Indigeneity and Accessibility (EDIIA)

The Faculty Lead for EDIIA will report directly to the Associate Dean, MD Program.

Responsibilities

- To report student concerns to the Associate Dean, MD Program and/or to the Assistant Dean of Student Affairs and/or Academic Affairs as appropriate, and advocate for program reforms to ensure equitable treatment of students, faculty, and staff
- To be an advisor to the MDPEC committee regarding ongoing program evaluation, policy renewal, and EDIIA initiatives
- To be an advisor to the Curriculum Committee regarding ongoing curricular renewal
- To be a non-voting member of the Admissions Committee, as well as advise on renewal of admissions streams and entry criteria
- To be an advisor to the office of learner wellness
- To be a support to faculty to review their teaching from an EDIIA lens
- To support EDIIA curriculum delivery
- To build and maintain partnerships with key stakeholders within Queen's Health Sciences

Commitment

The time commitment is 90 half days per year

Term of Appointment

The Term of the appointment is 3 years, renewable upon review

Interested faculty members should contact Dr. Eugenia Piliotis, Associate Dean, MD Program, at eugenia.piliotis@queensu.ca