

Objectives of the Program

By the end of this program, residents will be able to:

- Describe important concepts in education and apply them to their own teaching practices
- Increase their repertoire of teaching strategies and skills
- Appreciate the importance of creating a healthy learning environment, and understand what elements are essential to that development
- Reflect on their practice as teachers

