

New Residents & Clinical Fellows Virtual Orientation June 27, 2025
AGENDA

Zoom link has been email. Contact PGME if you need it.

trainees are welcome attend orientation. It is mandatory for new trainees to Queen's University. Trainees should consult with their program or Fellowship Director if they are unable to attend this mandatory orientation.

On Participation: There is an expectation that participants will be fully engaged with the orientation session keeping cameras for the duration of the session as part of professional courtesy. While we recognize that there may be short periods of time throughout the session where you may have to turn your camera off, it should remain on for the majority of the session. We suggest using the optional background filters as you deem necessary, ensuring your first and last name are visible on the screen, or setting yourself up with a blank wall behind you. If you are unsure how to set up filters, please review the information here.
