New education programming in development:

Queen’s-certified mental health training program with Morneau Shepell

International students for Queen’s MD

MD/MBA, MSc Health Quality/MBA

e-Pre-Health Undergraduate Degree

MSc in Drug Development and Human Toxicology

MSc Mental Health and Addictions Nurse Practitioner – School of Nursing

Masters in Health and Aging – School of Nursing and School of Rehabilitation Therapy
Dr. Leslie Flynn formally appointed Vice-Dean Education, Faculty of Health Science

Heather Stuart, Shu-Ping Chen (Public Health Sciences) and Terry Krupa (School of Rehabilitation Therapy) - $1.7 million from Movember Canada to lead a national study to address student mental health issues on campus
Dr. Paul Beliveau received The John Provan Outstanding Canadian Surgical Educator Award from the Canadian Undergraduate Surgical Education Committee (CUSEC)

Dr. Robert Reid named a Fellow of the Royal College of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists UK - only the fourth Canadian in the past 25 years to receive this award

CIHR funded study into blood thinners led by a 3rd year undergraduate medical student Yan Xu, Chris Simpson and Ana Johnson published in CMAJ and featured on NEJM website
Queen’s medical students led the successful bid to host the Canadian Federation of Medical Students 2014 national conference

Reminder - Canadian Medical Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony in Kingston this April 24th

Thank you to the departments who have already bought tables
Dean’s Report

Answer: 4,400 applicants for 100 seats

Question: What is Queen’s School of Medicine?

Matthew Church (Meds ’16) appeared on Jeopardy for three shows in December and won $31,000
Financial Update